

Every day, God shows up.

Who is telling the story?

People experience the presence of God every day. Through small moments, answered prayers, quiet signs, and encounters that change everything. Yet we rarely talk about them enough.

Hearing someone else's testimony can give courage, inspire faith, and remind us that God is alive and active among us.

"Go home to your own people and tell them how much the Lord has done for you."

Your testimony could draw someone to Christ.

A place to share how God has worked in your life, so others can encounter Him too.

1 Testimonies build faith

Hearing how God moved in someone else's life makes us believe He can move in ours.

2 Stories reach where sermons cannot

A personal encounter with God, simply told, opens hearts in ways nothing else can.

3 Nothing is too small

A moment of peace, an answered prayer, a quiet sign. Every experience belongs here.

"Go home to your own people and tell them how much the Lord has done for you."

A miraculous healing in the chapel

For several months I suffered from a serious illness that no doctor could explain or cure. The pain was constant and my energy had completely gone; I was unable to move.
